

Psychic Spies

Taking the rushes and sound mixes from their short film 'The Abbadon File' (2008), dr_lighthouse and VJ PowerPoint remix the film live exploring the inherent story telling properties of short film to generate an ever changing gestalt narrative.

Synopsis: "Prudence a middle aged psychic is again drawn into the world of cold war spies when she is recruited to find a missing secret agent. Accompanied by her spirit guide she enters the shadowy world of master spy, Mr Calabrese.

Believing himself to be in control of the situation his world is turned upside down as it becomes apparent that the world of the spirits has a different agenda".
